In Memoriam

James Dugan

Born November 13, 1944 Deceased November 2, 1960

Oh! there at last, life's trials past
We'll meet our loved once more,
Whose feet have trod the path to God—
"Not lost, but gone before."

Caroline Norton

FOREWORD

We have erected another column in the temple of life. A column laid with a million joys, cemented by tears, molded by faculty hands, and raised with cherished memories. May this 1961 Crystal engrave upon the column adamantine, the memories of us who will pass on to build new columns and of those who follow us to experience more wonderful times at Clay High School.

WITH SINCERE GRATITUDE

We dedicate this Crystal to you, Mr. Morgan. In gratefulness for your outstanding teaching, in admiration of your commendable coaching, and in deepest appreciation of the fine example you have inspired us to follow, the students of Clay Senior High School can look on richer lives and do humbly say, "Thanks for your unselfish toil."

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING

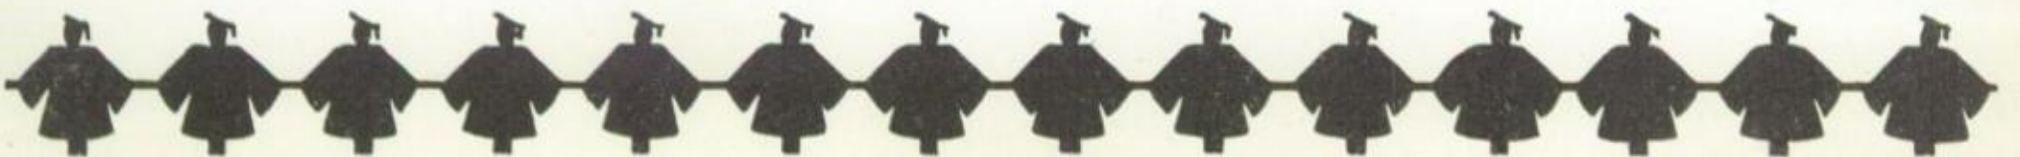

Thanks for everything,
Every dean, every boy, every miss;
Thanks for everything,
For bringing us Seniors like this.

We've helped make Clay what it is,
We've carried things through,
And we take this way to say
We give our thanks to you.

So thanks for everything,
Every thrill, every sigh, every bliss;
Thanks for everything,
For bringing us friendships like this.

You gave us our reasons
to dream
And made every wish come true,
And so for everything
Our thanks to you.

A royal smile to greet the spectators.

Last year's queen, Jeanette Kontak, leads the royal court to the throne.

Queen Donna, attendants and escorts observe the game.

HOMECOMING 1960

Two lovely attendants and queen descend from the throne.

Queen Donna Grubb began her reign as the 1960 Homecoming Queen in the Clay High Memorial Stadium on October 21, 1960. Attendants, Judy Fromm and Kathleen Marlow, accompanied her to her throne.

Miss Jeanette Kontak, 1959 Homecoming Queen, crowned Donna, who was arrayed in a lavender, iridescent taffeta dress.

When asked how it felt to be queen, Donna stated, "I will never forget those two wonderful days and the honor and thrill that it brought to me."

CORONATION BALL

In honor of the queen, the Coronation Ball was held on the night of October 22, 1960. Queen Donna and her attendants were presented sashes by Jeanette Kontak.

Escorts for the royal court were as follows: Queen Donna Grubb was escorted by Larry Ousky; Attendant Judy Fromm was escorted by Bill Huss; and Attendant Kathleen Marlow was escorted by Mike McNulty. Music for the dance was provided by the Bel-Aires.

Reigning Queen Donna Grubb and escort Larry Ousky pose for cameraman while dancing.

Hectic moments, temper tantrums and much fun went into the production of YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU. The title conveys the theme of this three-act comedy by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. In the play Grandpa Vanderhof has educated his family to live by this philosophy. The incongruity of a happy, carefree family in the midst of a highly competitive capitalistic world provides the basic humor of the situation. Two successful performances justified the work of forty-five production staff members and nineteen actors.

Sixty-five students joined forces by contributing imagination, time and energy to produce Thornton Wilder's farce, THE MATCHMAKER. The matchmaker, Dolly Levi, leads her friends through a merry romp in New York City. By her coniving she pairs up four couples — including herself and a wealthy merchant. The hilarious antics help to prove that true enjoyment of life comes through free participation in all its wonderful aspects.

23rd ANNUAL JAMBOREE

On Friday, April 28, 1961, the 23rd Annual jamboree was presented by the Girls' Choir, Boys' Glee Club, and the A Cappella Choir. "The Nut Kracker Sweet" was the theme of the Jamboree, highlighting songs and fashions from 1901-1961. The parody showed a modern psychiatrist analyzing his patient; incidents in the form of visions aided the doctor in improving the patient's state of mind.

Ed Bachmeyer

Lex,

The Very Best of Luck to the nicest guy I've met in a long time. We've had a lot of fun this year. Keep up the good work in band and don't worry about guiding right.
(guide left) — Maybe next year we'll win the tennis tournament if we don't turn professional before then.

Sue Blair

P.S. I hope the Tigers win.

Good luck
to a fun-lovin' kid
David Rose

Best of luck
